Annual Lecture "Baby in the Bag - The Artificial Womb" by the Distinguished Professor Alan Flake

Professor Alan Flake is the Professor of Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, Director, Center for Fetal Research and is also the Ruth M. and Tristram C. Colket Jr. Endowed Chair, Pediatric Surgery.

His cutting edge research is in creating a "bio bag" to support premature babies, potentially improving prognosis and mortality of these vulnerable ones. Come to be inspired and also for an evening of friendship and camaraderie!
